GTI Facilities

GTI is located on an 18-acre site near O'Hare International Airport, in the Chicago suburb of Des Plaines, Illinois. About half of GTI's 280,000-square-foot headquarters building is dedicated to modern laboratory and research facilities, including a wide range of specialized equipment for design, testing and analysis. Offices, training facilities and an extensive library occupy the remainder. Over twenty-eight specialized laboratory facilities on the GTI campus are used to develop and test advanced energy technologies.

GTI also operates the following offices and facilities:

- > GTI Washington Operations Office
- > GTI Catoosa Test Facility (near Tulsa, Oklahoma)
- > Houston Office in Sugar Land, TX
- > Process Research and Evaluation Group in Birmingham, AL for gasification research
